Personal Care Packaging That Delights Consumers

Your packaging has to do more than look good. It needs to perform for consumers, strengthen your brand, and support your business.

Here's how we can help.

Design for Every Consumer

"I wanted packaging to truly work for people who struggle with standard bottles and caps. Without TricorBraun, I never would have discovered this solution that perfectly aligned with my mission of accessibility."

–Enable Accessible Haircare

Simplify Packaging Complexity

"They've helped us streamline in several ways, including consolidating suppliers, optimizing packaging specifications, and improving forecasting alignment. Their ability to manage complexity on our behalf allows our internal teams to stay focused on higher-value activities."

–Better Being Co.

Packaging That Drives Results

"Our unit consumption has increased 20% year-over-year since the rebrand and new packaging launch."

–The Seaweed Bath Co.

Advance Your Sustainability Goals

"TricorBraun helped us improve our sustainability story by finding a recyclable bottle that met all our requirements. It's always great working with such a knowledgeable team that goes above and beyond to help us reach our marketing & packaging objectives."

–Zotos Professional

Turn Innovation into Reality

"TricorBraun brought this innovative concept to life by applying deep technical expertise and establishing the critical framework needed to move from idea to execution. The concept was not only visionary, but also achievable, scalable, and ready for market."

–Living Proof

Drive Consumer Loyalty

"What really stood out is TricorBraun's pursuit of excellence in every step of the process. They invest in the resources, equipment, and support needed to deliver packaging solutions that drive consumer loyalty and set us up for long-term success."
